

Empowering great leaders to be EXTRAORDINARY

A REVOLUTIONARY APPROACH TO LEADERSHIP AND GENDER PARTNERSHIP

For 25 years, the Institute for Women's Leadership has been partnering with multinational corporations, federal governments, global nonprofits, and emerging businesses to achieve ambitious and sustainable goals, including full Gender Partnership.

Our methodology, Contextual Leadership™, has been featured in the national media as "a breakthrough approach" to enable individuals and organizations to move from great to extraordinary. Taught in all of our programs, this powerful tool enables breakthroughs in thinking and attitudes, including the shedding of unconscious gender bias to reach full Gender Partnership and its many benefits.

We rely on a deep and trusting partnership with our clients to co-create solutions that are cutting-edge, pragmatic, and sustainable.

A short exploratory conversation with our leadership will make it clear whether our solutions are a good fit for your organization. Call us at 415-331-3222.

RAYONA SHARPNAK

"To effect change in a company, you need momentum. What struck me after our first Women Leading Change class was that the women became advocates for driving change. It was a seriously life-changing event for them. Now Rayona is inspiring our men to be advocates for women's leadership too."
